Coruna, May 29. N. S.

THE Prince of Brabanſon arrived here laſt week from Madrid, being made Captain General of Andaluſia, in the room of the Marquis of Aſtorgas. Our Letters from Madrid ſay, the King and Queen of Spain were in good health, and continued at Aranjuez. They write from Cadiz of the 9th Inſtant, that the Spaniſh Men of War which are fitting out there for the Weſt-Indies, will be ready to put to Sea by the latter end of this month. We have advice, that a Squadron of French Men of War with ſeveral Bomb Ketches are coming into theſe Parts, with a deſign to Bombard Sallee.

Rome, May 22. The Great Duke of Tuſcany arrived the 20th Inſtant at Civita-Vecchia, and is expected here this evening. 'Tis ſaid, his Highneſs intends to be here incognito. The Cardinal de Bouillon has received a Courier from France, with the King's expreſs Orders to repair to his Abbey of Clugny in Burgundy, and to continue there till farther order. The cauſe of his Diſgrace, is ſaid to be his endeavouring to promote the Intereſt of the Abbot de Vaubrun, his particular Friend, in order to his being choſen Coadjutor of Strasbourg, to the Prejudice of the Abbot of Soubize, who is recommended by the King.

From the Saxon Camp near Riga, May 27. N. S. All our Foot are gone into the Dunamunder and Kober Forts, and the Horſe, to the number of about 2000, are poſted near the Banks of the Dwina. The Swedes are encamped on the other ſide the River, and the Cannon play very warmly on both ſides. We intend if poſſible to hinder the Enemy's paſſing the River, and to maintain our Ground till the Succours expected from Poland and Saxony are arrived. There is a Report, that a ſtrong body of Muſcovites are coming to join us, and that their Van-guard, conſiſting of 5000 Men, is arrived at Druio on the Frontiers of Livonia; but to this little credit is given, ſeeing none of the Letters from thoſe Parts give any Account of it.

Mittaw, May 28. Prince Ferdinand, Adminiſtrator of Courland during the Minority of the Duke his Nephew, having lately ſummoned a Diet of this Dutchy, they met accordingly, and he propoſed to them, to raiſe 3000 Men for the Aſſiſtance of the King of Poland in his War againſt Sweden; But the Diet, after meeting ſeveral days, broke up without coming to any Reſolution. The arrival of the Swediſh Forces at Riga makes the People here very uneaſie, who fear they will make an Inroad into this Country, and divers of the Inhabitants have already ſent away their beſt Effects to Memel. Nothing conſiderable paſſes at preſent between the Swedes and the Saxons who lie near Riga, being ſeparated by the River Dwina. The Forces of Lithuania, commanded by Major-General Potocky, continue quartered in and about Birza, having no Orders to join the Saxons. It's ſaid, the Gentlemen of that Dutchy appear very much diſſatisfied at the King of Poland's Enterprize againſt Riga, whereby their Trade is in a great meaſure interrupted.

Warſaw, May 29. The Senate of Poland met on the 25th Inſtant, and entred upon the Conſideration of the Affair of Livonia; On the 26th and 27th the Senators in their order delivered their Opinions, with their Reaſons for the ſame; and yeſterday the Crown-Marſhal, and the other great Officers and Miniſters of State, did the like; Not above 6 or 7 of the Senators were for engaging in the War againſt Sweden, ſeveral ſpoke directly againſt it, and the Majority were of opinion, That a Matter of ſuch Conſequence ought to be referred to a General Diet. This day the King declared to the Senate, That he will call a General Diet in December next, and that in the mean time he will carry on the War againſt Sweden with his own Forces. The King's Regiment of Horſe-Guards is marched to Pruſſia, and the Foot-Guards will be ſent thither by Water, to join the Forces that come from Saxony, to the number of about 8000; Their Rendezvous is appointed at Mariembourg, and it's ſaid the King will ſhortly go thither to review them. A great quantity of Bombs, and other Ammunition, will be likewiſe ſent down the Weſel to Pruſſia. A Marriage is lately concluded between Prince Charles of Newbourg and the eldeſt Daughter of Prince Lubomirsky, Great Marſhal of the Crown of Poland.

Vienna, May 30. The Conferences are continued between the Emperor's Miniſters and the Turkiſh Ambaſſador, and they have agreed, That the Buſineſs of Nova ſhall be laid aſide for the preſent, and that the Commiſſioners ſhall proceed to ſettle the Limits of Upper Hungary and Tranſilvania. A Diet of the Eſtates of Hungary is ſummoned to meet at Presbourg in June next. Orders are given, for preparing Magazines of Proviſions on the Frontiers of Bohemia and Saxony for the Service of the Imperial Troops in thoſe Parts.

Tonningen, June 7. On the firſt Inſtant Major-General Bannier, who commands the Duke of Holſtein's Forces in this Place, received Advice, that the Forces of the King of Sweden and the Princes of Lunenbourg, making together about 20000 Men, had paſſed the Elbe, and were marching to relieve this Place, whereupon he cauſed all the Cannon round the Town to be diſcharged, and the Burghers expreſſed their joy with Fireworks and Illuminations. On the 2d, the Danes began to ſend away their heavy Baggage and Artillery, and the next day their Troops marched from hence. The Garriſon intended to make a Sally upon the Enemy, and to attack their Rear, which the Danes having notice of, they laid a Party of their Men in Ambuſh in order to have cut off our Retreat, but being diſcovered, our Governor countermanded the Orders for making a Sally. The Garriſon and Inhabitants of this Place are employed in repairing our Fortifications, and demoliſhing the Enemies Works, and filling up their Trenches; And 'tis ſaid, General Bannier will in few days march from hence with 3000 Men to join the Forces of Sweden and Lunenbourg.

Altona, June 8. The Count de Guldenſterne, who Commands the Confederate Forces of Sweden and Lunenbourg, has publiſhed a Placaet dated the 4th Inſtant, ſetting forth, That theſe Forces are come into Holſtein with no other deſign than to maintain the Treaty of Altona, whereof the King of Sweden and the Princes of the Houſe
